

Just Space
NETWORK

Invites you to
How Neighbourhood
Plans Work

Are you interested in finding out more about Neighbourhood Plans and the practicalities involved in developing one in your area?

London Civic Forum, the Just Space Network and Community Development Network London would like to invite you to this free event aimed at resident activists, representatives from community organisations and community development workers (from across the voluntary and statutory sectors).

This event will support participants to:

- Gain a greater understanding of the legislation relating to NP in the Localism Act
- Identify the potential and practicalities of developing Neighbourhood Plans in their areas
- Develop links with other communities and activists who have an interest in Neighbourhood Plans and planning
